

ACG Further Education and Training Platform and Coronavirus

Date: 30 March 2020

The Australian Centre for Geomechanics (ACG), The University of Western Australia, continues to closely monitor the developments surrounding COVID-19 Coronavirus in Australia, and implications for world travel.

The ACG's top priority is the safety and well-being of the delegates, speakers, sponsors and exhibitors of our further education and training events and courses.

We thank industry for its ongoing support and assure everyone that the ACG will come through this global crisis and we remain committed to continuing to deliver excellent and successful mining geomechanics events and training courses.

Trusted sources of information on COVID-19 include:

- <https://www.smartraveller.gov.au/news-and-updates/coronavirus-covid-19>
- <https://www.aihs.org.au/news-and-publications/news/coronavirus-covid-19-update>
- <https://www.homeaffairs.gov.au/news-media/current-alerts/novel-coronavirus>

Thank you for your understanding and collaboration. The ACG team will continue to closely monitor the situation in regards to future events as your safety and health are imperative.

Yours sincerely,

Associate Professor Johan Wesseloo
ACG Director

Josephine Ruddle
ACG Marketing Manager